Membership on the Zoning Hearing Board requires compliance with Pennsylvania law regarding the filing of financial disclosure forms with the State Ethics Commission annually.

The Borough Council may conduct interviews at the time a vacancy on an authority, board or commission occurs. Appointments are then made at legislative Council meeting.

Applications will be kept on file in the Community Leadership Resource Bank (CLRB) maintained in the Borough Secretary's Office for Two Years. Applicants will be notified of vacancies prior to the scheduled interview.

As an applicant for appointment, this information is covered under the Pennsylvania Open Records Law and therefore may be made available to the press and the public. The Borough of Wilkesburg exercises affirmative action in its appointment practices.
